VIEWING, SIGNING, AND PAYMENT

1

Before You View

- Contact a licensed Hong Kong estate agent and verify the licence on the EAA Licence List
- Request the agent card with photo and licence details
- Sign an estate agency agreement before viewing, and check the validity period, duties, and commission carefully
- Arrange a viewing safely

2

During the Viewing

- Tour the flat with a friend or family member where possible
- Verify the landlord's identity and the property status
- Check the layout, condition, furnishings, and facilities carefully
- Visit the building and street in both daytime and evening if possible

3

Before You Sign or Pay

- Clarify commission, deposit, tenancy period, move-in date, and break terms
- Confirm who pays utilities, management fees, rates, internet, and minor repairs
- Ask for a written inventory of furniture and appliances
- Use a formal tenancy agreement and read the full terms carefully before signing
- Whenever possible, sign and make payment only after viewing the accommodation in person; otherwise, ask a trusted person to inspect it for you.

Upfront costs to plan for

✓

Security deposit is commonly about 2 months' rent

✓

If you use an agent, commission is often 50% of one month's rent

✓

Stamp duty is usually shared by landlord and tenant

✓

Leave room in your budget for internet setup, moving supplies, linens, and basic furniture

✓

Sharing a flat with a friend can reduce costs, but be sure to confirm with the landlord how many occupants are allowed.

Watch Out for Rental Scams

SCAM ALERT

Patterns	What you should do
Fake landlord or fake estate agent asking for upfront payment	Verify identity, licence status, and who actually controls the unit.
Fake online listings designed to collect money or personal details	Prefer in-person inspection before payment.
Illegal commission or fee collection by an unlicensed person.	Use formal contracts, bank transfer, and keep records; report suspicions to the police or the Estate Agents Authority.

Good practice

• Use bank transfer or another traceable method whenever possible.

• Keep receipts and avoid cash, urgency pressure, or suspicious accounts.
